CAPT. JOHN H. WOODBRIDGE, the Blind Orator, will deliver a lecture on "Light and the Eye," next Tuesday night. The place for the lecture will be made known soon. He was a member of Anderson's old brigade, who first went to Virginia. Let him have a large audience.

The Federal court has adjourned, and our editor, Mr. R. W. Thomas, will be at home next week.

We have heard of several sales of pork, for family use, at 5 cents.

Dr. C. E. L. McCauley, of this county, killed a hog on Wednesday last, that weighed 512 pounds net.

The Tennessee Press Association meets in Brownsville on the 11th of next June.

The Russellville Herald says $100,000 in building turnpikes throughout their limits.

The Paducah Kentuckian says it is estimated that the receipts of tobacco there, this season, will reach 15,000 hhds.

Mrs. DORA KELLY is having her lot opposite Mr. Sullivan's on Franklin street, graded with the intention of building a residence this winter.

There was a pretty general suspension of business in this city on Thursday last. Religious service was held in most of the churches.

Vol. WILLIAMS has built up a splendid trade in boots, shoes, etc., in a very short time. How has he done it? By judicious advertising and selling good goods at reasonable prices.

The brick work on B. O. Keene's splendid residence is completed, and the wood work is progressing rapidly. Madison street is the street of our city, for beautiful private residences.

We have a number of receipts and certificates in the drawing, for those who have subscribed for the CHRONICLE and COURIER-JOURNAL together. Please come up and get them.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. John Dickson, living on the south side of Cumberland river, has become hopelessly insane, and that preparations will have to be made to place him in the asylum.

Mr. GUS. REXINER has secured the services of Mr. Geo. Albright as clerk in his wholesale liquor house in this city. He is an energetic young gentleman and will give satisfaction to customers.

We have sent out some circulars to different persons, setting forth the inducements we offer to subscribers. We hope all to whom these circulars are sent will endeavor to secure as many subscribers as possible.

A mass meeting of the farmers and patrons of the 25th band was held at Atlanta on the 25th inst. They resolved to plant only one-third of their crop next year in cotton, to favor cash payments and declare their right to control the price of cotton.

The modesty of some men is really astounding. We heard the other day that one of the editors of the Tobacco Leaf, refused positively to look at a dead snake because it belonged to the gutter class.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. S. W. Martin's little daughter, JENNY, was thrown from a horse on the 21st inst., while returning from school, near the mouth of Yellow Creek, and had her arm broken. She had the same arm broken about three months ago.

APPOINTMENTS—John R. Martin has been appointed Deputy Sheriff, in place of Wm. Shelton, Jr., resigned.

Mr. W. J. Tatt has been appointed, by Judge Tyler, as constable for this district. He is ready to attend to any business put in his hands.

THE LADIES' PEARL, for December, is to hand, replete with choice reading, original and selected. It should number among its subscribers the name of every Cumberland Presbyterian in the land. Send $2 to the editor, J. C. FORTUNE, M. D., Nashville, Tenn., and secure this neatly printed and ably condensed monthly.

THURSDAY, as Thanksgiving day, was observed in our sister city New Providence by an entire suspension of business and religious services at the Methodist Church. The new pastor is making his mark.

Quite a surprise of an agreeable nature took place at the Methodist church, in this city, on Sunday evening last. When the Pastor, Rev. Wm. Green, had finished his sermon, he gave out a hymn, which related to marriages, requesting the congregation to remain seated. At the conclusion of the singing, Mr. O. C. Smith, the popular Deputy Clerk & Master of the Montgomery County Chancery Court walked boldly down the aisle bearing upon his arm the accomplished Miss Lucy Alva Atkins, daughter of Henry M. Atkins, Esq. of this city, and before the astonishment of the audience had quitted down they were pronounced man and wife after the impressive ceremony of the Methodist church. Somebody must always be congratulated upon such occasions, but the parties to this sudden life-long engagement as well as all who witnessed it, are to be congratulated on the most fortunate of the two. Mr. Smith's life, since its commencement in Clarksville at a very early age, has been marked with a degree of purity and upright bearing fit for the emulation of any man. Socially, morally, and in a business point of view, he has few equals and no superior. His wife is all that he could wish her; affable, frugal, domestic and intelligent. May joy attend them, and in the distant future as they journey together towards the bright hereafter, may their lives be as happy as that joyous moment when they were first pronounced "man and wife."

A WALK along any of our streets during a rain storm, will convince the most obstinate citizen that our gutters and sewers are in a miserable condition. In many places dirt, garbage, and decayed leaves have accumulated to such an extent that the water and mud overflows the pavement making the walking disagreeable. Is there not some authority granted in our city charter to permit the Recorder to place upon our streets as a fifth removing corps the most violent of city ordinances who are constantly thronging our city court? If there is not, some provision should be made at the next meeting of our Legislature. Other cities use this piece of disturbing element to a good purpose. Why cannot we, as a city, derive some benefit from them instead of having them as a tax upon our treasury. We hope the board will take this subject under advisement.

No matter what efforts a man with a high regard for the difference of right and wrong may bring to bear, there are errors in society which will continue so long as there is a lack of respect for the feelings of others and a want of knowledge of the proper behavior becoming civilized beings in a house of worship. Nevertheless we must urge upon those young ladies and gentlemen visiting our churches on the Sabbath to leave at home their giddy ways and not force them upon others who desire to join in the worship with proper feelings for the solemnity of the occasion. Silly laughing, writing notes, and a general tele-a-tele will do for a theater but not for the house of God.

THE NEW Gracy Warehouse (named after its owner, Capt. F. P. Gracy), Corner of Commerce and Second St., is rapidly trending towards completion. When finished it will be the most convenient and commodious in the city. Capt. T. L. Willis has charge of the work, which is a sure indication that it will be substantial in every part. It is in the shape of an E and is to be covered with an iron roof. When completed it will be occupied by Messrs. Harrison & Shelby, who, since the war, have been instrumental in bringing large quantities of tobacco to this market. We hope it will be filled this season.

ANOTHER RAID on our HEN ROOST. Some sneak thief, after pretending to "keep the Sabbath day," broke into our hen-house last Sunday night and carried off six fat hens and one old duck. We would not mind this old fellow proceeding so much if the racial had quit that, but we had been boarding up all the fractional currency we could spare and had laid in a big load of wood, when the chicken fellow also carried off our new wood-saw, which leaves us in a bad fix. We console ourselves, however, with the fact that this racial will one day land where they keep good roasting fires without the aid of wood or saws.

In calling attention to the advertisement of Kennedy & Faxon's Insurance Agency, in this issue, we most heartily endorse every word contained therein, as we practice both Life and Fire Insurance which we consider one of the safest investments a man can make. They present in their advertisement a strong appeal and urge upon all the importance of insurance both Fire and Life.

Messrs. Kennedy & Faxon, are live Insurance men—know the business thoroughly as well as the companies they represent and the laws governing insurance. Doing a large business they have naturally paid up in this place a considerable amount of money both for Fire & Life Insurance to the entire satisfaction of the policy holders as well as the companies they represent.

We are advised (confidentially of course) of several wedding cakes to be taken before the New Year comes in. Marriage is an institution which was and is panics can never check. 'Tis as certain to come upon the young as the measles. If lovers would only listen to reason and remember that an engagement contains more real happiness in a minute than can be found in a whole married life-time why they would—Oh! 'phaw! what the use of arguing the question with a lot of noodies. Go on, if you want to come to grief.

A CORRESPONDENT in writing to the Nashville Banner, from this city, under the nom-de-plume of Panic, has been throwing hot shells into the Comptroller's camp. Cause—the Comptroller makes a minute on the bank of State warrants sent to certain parties here, requesting Revenue Collectors to pay their face value in greenbacks. Panic asks for the authority for such favoritism. The Comptroller is plucky, but we have not as yet seen that he has justified himself.

J. E. MOSLEY, Revenue collector, will have his office with Mr. Sam. Johnson, on corner of First and Sam. Johnson streets. He expects to receive his books this week, and will then be in readiness to collect taxes.

Thus it will be seen that this firm has done a large business the past year, giving satisfaction to their patrons. The new firm, Herndon, Gold, Brundy & Co., are all energetic, business men, and we predict for them a successful business this tobacco season.

It is no use to try to panic longer. A hand organ and monkey are sure forerunners of easy times. Our citizens have been highly entertained the past week with one of these necessary evils. Large crowds of the panic were attracted by the dulcet tones of the organ and queer antics of the monkey. At night numerous citizens were serenaded at their residences by the kind proprietor of the exhibition, assisted by some of the college boys.

THE NASHVILLE BANNER says: Superintendent Meek, of the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville Railroad, has agreed to run a train to Guthrie in connection with the Hopkinstville Accommodation train on the St. Louis and Southeastern road, which will leave Clarksville at 6 o'clock A. M., arriving at Nashville at 10 A. M., and leaving there at 4:15 P. M. The arrangement will go into effect next Monday.

We are glad to state that our Baptist friends have received their furnace with which to heat up their church. It will cost them about $500. A competent workman has put it in place, so that services will be held in the upper room to-morrow. This furnace is so arranged that any required degree of heat can be obtained, and can be regulated at will. No matter how cold the weather, this church can be made entirely comfortable. In all its appointments this house of worship is now equal to any in the State.

EXTENSIVE SALE.—On the 17th of December next Col. T. D. Leonard will sell the Bacon property in Tiggs County, Ky., consisting of twelve farms, containing 2,663 acres of well improved land as there is in Kentucky; a large lot of mules, thoroughbred horses, fine mares and their produce, valuable farming machinery, etc. The land will be sold in lots of from 15 to 400 acres, to suit purchasers. This is an extensive sale, and should command the attention of all who have money.

JO. BLACKBURN, a prominent Tennessee Republican, and late United States Marshal, found guilty of forgery by the Federal court, has been sentenced to five years imprisonment in the penitentiary. Judge Trigg, in pronouncing the sentence, said he meant penitentiary, and not working on railroads and in coal mines.

THE FIDELITY of certain boys who congregate in and about the Post Office on the arrival of the mail—posting gentlemen and in many other ways disturbing the peace, is becoming an intolerable nuisance. If it can be abated in no other way we suggest that the Post master petition the Mayor for a policeman to preserve the dignity of the city during mail hours.

OUR friend, Flood, of the Dover Record, asks us to stir up somebody for not passing the CHRONICLE to him when started in that direction. We thank you, for this hint. The mail carrier promised to carry our paper on from Indian Mound to Dover. As he fails to do this, we will have to send it by way of Evans, who can get it Tuesday. This is the best we can do under the circumstances.

WE are gratified to be able to state that Mr. Ed. B. Ross, of this county, who recently met with a serious accident, is recovering and will soon be able to attend to his regular duties. Mr. Ross was engaged in killing hogs, and the accident occurred by the hog galloping from his position and striking him upon his shoulder—breaking both the collar bone and shoulder blade. Mr. Ross is one of our most estimable citizens as well as the best farmer his age in this county.

ANY one paying us $5.25 will receive the CHRONICLE one year from the time their present subscription expires, the fine Rembrandt picture, and the COURIER-JOURNAL for one year. If this amount is paid before Jan. 1874, the subscriber will be entitled to a chance to draw a premium offered by the COURIER-JOURNAL.

SEE FRED. BOSTLEMAN'S advertisement to-day. He is now ready, at his manufactory in New Providence, to furnish saddles, harness, bridles, etc., of the latest styles and best workmanship. His horse is Herndon, Gold, Brundy & Co.'s warehouse, and he will be pleased to wait upon all who call on him.

CAIRO has a sausage factory which turns out 1,500 pounds an hour. Taking the average weight of a dog at 12 pounds it consumes 125 dogs a day—Exchange.

We would like to borrow that factory for the purpose of running it a few days in this city.

OUR proposition to furnish the CHRONICLE and a fine Rembrandt picture, to be taken by Mr. McCombs, for $4.00, admits of the subscriber having his own, or the likeness of any member of his family.

Among the distinguished visitors at the wedding at the Methodist church on Sunday night last we saw Col. Logan Williamson who seems to be always on hand at every-body's wedding—but his own.

BE sure to read the new advertisement of W. McComb & Co., in this issue. This firm is doing an extensive business despite the hard times.

SEE G. R. HARRIS advertisement. He proposes to do hauling of any kind, to any point, at cheap rates. He has splendid teams, and will pay particular attention to business intrusted to him.

WE offer the CHRONICLE and the Rembrandt picture for $4—when the entire amount is ordered from Mr. McCombs, would cost you $5.

The Chronicle for 1874.

ADDITIONAL INDUCEMENTS.

The Chronicle and Louisville Courier-Journal for $5.25.

Life-size Pictures, painted and Framed by McCombs, offered as Premiums for Clubs.

Our first proposition is to furnish our paper and the Louisville Weekly Courier-Journal, at a special price paying subscribers for $3.25. This proposition includes old subscribers who pay all arrears and then in advance for twelve months from that date.

Remember if you club with the CHRONICLE and COURIER-JOURNAL prior to Jan. 1, 1874, you have a chance to draw one of the handsome premiums offered by the COURIER.

All new subscribers who will pay $4.00 in advance will receive the CHRONICLE for one year, and one of McCombs' whole-size Rembrandt Pictures, beautifully framed and warranted to give satisfaction. Old subscribers who will pay all arrears to date and then pay $4.00 in advance, will be entitled to the same.

These pictures retail at $5.00, and are worth the money, but the arrangement we have entered into enables us to furnish the picture and the paper for $4.00.

By our arrangement with Mr. McCombs, we are enabled to offer to any one sending us ten names and twenty dollars in money, either a porcelain picture, worth $5.00, or a whole-size Rembrandt, $5.00.

If ten names are sent with $4.00 each, each subscriber will be entitled to one of the whole-size Rembrandt pictures, and the club to the life-size picture painted in colors.

To any one sending us forty names and eighty dollars, we will give a life-size picture—India Ink—worth $3.00.

If forty names are sent with $4.00 each, each subscriber will be entitled to one of the whole-size Rembrandt pictures, and the club to the life-size picture painted in colors.

For fifty names and one hundred dollars, we will furnish a life-size picture, painted in colors—worth $5.00.

If fifty names are sent with $4.00 each, each subscriber will be entitled to one of the whole-size Rembrandt pictures, and the club to the life-size picture painted in colors.

Those getting up clubs will get the same premiums as above by sending in lists composed of both $2.00 and $4.00 subscribers—those paying $4.00 receiving both paper and picture, those paying $2.00 receiving the paper only.

Parties entitled to these Premium Pictures can have their own likeness taken, or that of any member of their family.

All of the above mentioned pictures will be framed in elegant style and furnished complete.

This offer is open for all clubs gotten up any time between now and the 1st of January, 1874.

In order to get our subscription list paid up in advance, we will give those getting up clubs the privilege of sending the names of old subscribers when such subscribers will pay all arrears to date, and then pay two dollars in advance.

NEW FIRM.—On the 1st of December next, Messrs. Willie Keese and Mike O. Northington will take charge of the Clarksville Tobacco Warehouse, at present occupied by Harrison & Shelby, and engage in the inspection and sale of leaf tobacco. These young gentlemen are well known to our people, and the pleasure may rely upon them in every particular. Their business habits and strict integrity should command for them a liberal share of patronage.

THERE will be a meeting of the County Court held to-day, to elect a Revenue Collector, Mr. V. W. Smith, who was elected at the last term, having failed to give the required bond. Judge Tyler requests the candidates to come forward with their bonds filled up, so after an election there will be no delay.

IT is to be hoped that the incoming Congress will repeal the law in regard to newspapers. To require postage on exchanges, and on papers in the county where printed, is not necessary to carry on "the best government the world ever saw." We hope the press of the country will speak out on this subject and endeavor to bring about a change.

WALTER McCOMBS has just returned from New Orleans, where he went to buy a large supply of new sugar and molasses. McCombs & Co., will keep big stocks, which they buy low and then sell low.

We are in receipt of the Messenger, published at Hempstead, Texas, by C. L. Riddell and E. Hieronymus, of this city. These young gentlemen possess the talent to get up a rate paper, and we hope they may make the Messenger a success.

RICK, BROADBENT & Co., in their new column advertisement have marked down the price of a great many articles to one-fourth the original price. They are determined to sell at the very lowest figure, to dispose of their present large and varied stock.

Do not fail to notice the extraordinary inducements we offer to subscribers. You will never have a better chance to get the full worth of your money.

THE Comptroller on the 25th issued a warrant in favor of Monroe county for $70.79, the amount of school money being due that county.

B. F. COULTER's new advertisement will appear next week. In the meantime he is selling his splendid assortment of goods at the lowest prices. He is determined to sell as cheap as the cheapest.

By investing $4 now, you receive the full worth of $7.

The payment of $5.25 to this office now, secures the full value of $10.00.

The pictures we offer will be gotten up in McCombs' best style—and all know he cannot be excelled.

THURSDAY

and we not having a turkey of our own, accepted an invitation from our old friend Peter O'Neal, to dine with him and one or two other invited guests. We found the table bountifully supplied with the substantial of life, and served up in the very best of style. May he live a thousand years and have as large and fat a turkey every Thanksgiving day, and we be on hand to help eat it.

THANKSGIVING SERMON.—Rev. Wm. Green, pastor of the M. E. church, delivered an able and highly interesting sermon last Thursday. It was so appropriate for the times, that many have expressed a desire to see it in print, and the pastor has consented to furnish the general outlines of it for publication in a short time.

THE protracted meeting at the Cumberland Presbyterian church is still going on. Rev. B. M. Taylor is assisted by Rev. Mr. Jones and Rev. Mr. Hendrick's. The pulpit efforts of these visiting ministers are highly appreciated by our citizens.

FROELICH, the clothing man, has determined to sell his immense stock of clothing at the lowest living price. He will do what he says—call and see him.

THE river is falling, but at this writing there is about 13 feet of water on the shoals. The Tyrone is due to-day, for Nashville.

HOOS, at Nashville, on the 27th were selling at $4.00 a $4.25 gross. The bulk of sales at Louisville, same date, were at $4.45 a $4.50.

MASTER EDGAR OBAMA has a spring wagon and a good mule, and is prepared to do light hauling for any one desiring it. Patronize him.

PRAYER-MEETING will be held at the residence of R. H. Pickering, on Greenwood Avenue, next Thursday night. Let all attend.

THE way to get the right kind of Clothing is to buy it from Pitman & Lewis, who have Overcoats beautiful and fine—Horseback Overcoats, comfortable—C. F. Drawers of the best—a good supply on hand and great inducements to buy.

ATTENTION, DIRECTORS.—The next meeting of the Board of Education for the county takes place next Monday, Dec. 1. Directors are earnestly requested to be present, as business of great importance demands their attention—business which has been neglected owing to failure to attend the last two meetings of the Board by the Directors of the county.

Let every Director attend without failure.

Very Respectfully,
N. L. WHITEFIELD, Co. Supt.

COLLECTING AGENT.—Our young friend, N. D. Northington, has commenced the collection of claims, and will attend promptly to all business intrusted to him. Those having bills to collect will do well to see him.

Nov. 29.

ATTENTION, PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.—Masters of all the Granges of Montgomery county are requested to meet at Hook & Ladder Hall in Clarksville, at 10 o'clock, Monday, Dec. 1, for the purpose of attending to business of importance that will come before them for the good of the Order.

R. H. OGBURN,
Master Wilson Grange,
N. L. NORTHINGTON,
Master Post Royal Grange.

MARRIED.

At the Methodist Church, in this city, on the 23rd inst., by Rev. Wm. Green, Mr. O. C. Smith and Miss Lucy A. Atkins, all of this city.

In this city, on the 24th inst., by Rev. B. M. Taylor, Mr. CHARLES MURRAY and Mrs. CHARITY HARKY.

At the residence of Mrs. Whitefield, in this city, on the 25th inst., by Rev. B. M. Taylor, Mr. JOHN C. READ and Mrs. LUCY ROSS, all of this city.

DICK, as he is familiarly called, has lived on many valuable bills, but this last levy was a priceless treasure, and that for life. The bride knows full well that in her choice she does not lean upon a broken REED, but gains a strong arm and a brave heart to guide her along the pathway of life. May happiness be theirs forever.

DIED.

In this city, on the 23rd inst., Mrs. M. L. MAYES, sister of Mr. E. Estes, of this city.

At his residence, Milford, Ohio, Tuesday, Nov. 25, at 10 o'clock P. M., of typhoid fever, MUNDO B. TOWNSEND, in the 66th year of his age.

This will be sad news to his relatives and friends in this vicinity. We knew him to love him, and will reverse his memory. A noble-hearted, christian gentleman has gone to his reward.

FIRST Round of Quarterly Meetings.

Red River at New Chapel, Nov. 29, 30. Cheatham at, at Walton's Chapel, Dec. 6.
